General Notes:

1. Assume all electric fences on the East side are "live"
2. Some fields on the East side are edged with barbed wire; horses use caution
3. There are private access trails from the East side. Please stay on marked trails
4. Horses can access West side trails from horse corral along edge of field to Brookside Trail
5. 3 main access points for trails:
 - Main farm area parking - start behind barn follow signs to trails
 - Day St South Gate - access to East side trails
 - Broad Hill Rd - follow to end - once on dirt road look for parking area on left - access to West side trails - maps available at trailhead
